

Time's up.

The extra-credit you seek is no longer available. The opportunity was extended on October 29th and available to those who use the resources available to my classes. If you wish to take advantage of future opportunities then it is advisable that you register for SharbsClass updates, check the website, “fan” the SharbsClass Facebook page, or register for Twitter updates. There are too many ways to stay up-to-date on opportunities for “I didn’t know” to be an excuse.
